OCTOBER MINI-CONFERENCE
OCTOBER 08, 2019
Vista Tech Center
Room VT 500 A-D
18600 Haggerty Road
Livonia, MI 48152
734-462-4610

REGISTRATION
8:00 am – 8:30 am

SEMINAR AM SESSION
8:30 am – 12:30 pm

INSTRUCTOR & TOPIC

Andy Meisner - Oakland County Treasurer

Programs & Land Banks “How and why they work to revitalize communities”

Throughout his career, Andy Meisner has served the families of Oakland County at the federal, state, and local levels, presently as Oakland County Treasurer, a position he has held since 2009. As Treasurer, Andy focuses on preserving property values, preventing mortgage and tax foreclosures, and prudent stewardship and investment of Oakland County taxpayer dollars.

Prior to his service as Treasurer, Andy served three terms as a member of the Michigan House of Representatives. As a State Representative, Andy became known as for his work on legislation bringing the motion picture industry to Michigan, advancing stem cell research, and reforming the public mental health system. He Chaired the House Commerce Committee and shepherded the indoor smoking ban through the legislature, among other things. Andy also served in Washington, D.C. both as a Congressional Aide and vice-president of a national non-profit promoting community-based substance abuse prevention.

Andy earned a bachelor's degree in political science from the University of Michigan and a law degree from the University of Detroit-Mercy and is a member of the State Bar of Michigan. Andy has earned the professional credential of Certified Public Finance Administrator (CPFA) through The Association of Public Treasurers of the United States and Canada. He sits on the boards of several area non-profits including Oakland County Habitat for Humanity and Orchards Children’s Services.

meisnera@oakgov.com
248-858-0624
www.oakgov.com/treasurer
Facebook & Twitter: @OakGovMeisner

Steve Colliau - Hoarding Task Force - Washtenaw County

Perspective from the Trenches

Steve Colliau works as a Housing Inspector at Pittsfield Charter Township and volunteers with the an eyewitness to workplace safety violations while working elsewhere, Steve committed to volunteer on the township’s safety committee. Steve Colliau can be reached at (734) 822-3147 or by emailing colliaus@pittsfield-mi.gov.

BREAK

William Cudney-Deputy Chief of Public Safety-City of Huntington Woods

Hoarding from a Public Safety Perspective “Their limits, the law, programs and procedures”

Bill Cudney is currently the Deputy Chief of the Huntington Woods Department of Public Safety. As the deputy chief, Bill, reviews any citizen complaints, implements new policies and he is tasked with handling interdepartmental discipline. He also serves as the lead detective and is responsible for the investigation of all criminal matters as well as the interviewing of suspects, victims, and witnesses.

Bill joined the Detroit Police Department in 1998 and after completing the Detroit Police Academy worked out of the 8th precinct on the city’s northwest side. In 2002 Bill was hired by the City of Huntington Woods. Bill completed the Oakland Fire Academy and Medical First Responder Academy in 2003. Bill was promoted to Lieutenant in 2005 and served as the Special Events Coordinator and a shift commander. In 2010 Bill was made the Fire Chief of the department and Coordinator of the volunteer firefighters. In 2015 Bill was promoted to Deputy Chief and assigned as the lead detective.

Bill is a graduate of Siena Heights University and Northwestern University’s School of Police Staff and Command.

LUNCH PROVIDED

12:30 – 1:45 pm

SEMINAR PM SESSION

1:45 pm – 4:00 pm

INSTRUCTOR & TOPIC

Daniel A. Klemptner / Rosati, Schultz, Joppich & Amtsbuechler

Legalities of Hoarding “When to step in & when to step out”

Daniel A. Klemptner is an attorney in the Litigation Defense section of the firm. Prior to joining the firm, he worked as an Assistant City Attorney in the City of Flint Department of Law, where he gained invaluable, first-hand experience defending police practices, constitutional rights, employment, automobile negligence, premises liability, municipal, and zoning/planning cases. While employed with the City of Flint, Dan also handled various internal compliance matters including all responses to requests made pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, discrimination/harassment in the workplace complaints, and protecting his client's interests during the course of EEOC, MDCR, and USDOJ investigations.

Since joining the firm, Dan has successfully defended the interests of municipalities, governmental agencies, and private businesses in a wide variety of civil lawsuits involving employment matters, law enforcement liability, civil rights violations, and other liability issues.

Dan is currently an adjunct faculty member at the Oakland Community College's Fire Technology Institute, where he teaches the course "Legal Considerations in the Fire Service."
Laurie Lutomski, Licensed Baccalaureate Social Worker (LBSW)

The Psychology of Hoarding “The mind of a hoarder and the best approach”

Laurie Lutomski, LBSW has worked with clients with severe and persistent mental illness in the community for over 30 years. As the Chief Operating Officer for Synod Community Services and a founding member of the Hoarding Task Force of Washtenaw County, she has been able to collaborate with the other agencies and individuals represented to develop and implement the harm reduction model of treatment with clients and has helped mentor the formation of Task Forces throughout Michigan.

This event is $40 per Member

Non-Member fee is $100 & includes annual MACEO membership

Send registration via email to: Steve Watripont swatripont@cityofwarren.org

You must be registered to attend

No later than Noon Friday September 27th.